Points may be used in ½ or in 1 whole point increments. A Field Training Officer who continues in good standing may use the promotional point (maximum of 1 point) for each subsequent promotional test for Corrections Sergeant and will not lose accrued points for testing purposes as long as the member is a practicing FTO. Points for promotion will be accrued in ½ point increments for each year worked as a practicing FTO. Total accrual will not exceed 1 point, regardless of time spent as an FTO. Time will be accrued in whole years of FTO service only. Time spent as an FTO in parts of years will not be counted as a promotional point. Staff members who resign from the FTO Program in lieu of removal by disciplinary action or who are removed from the FTO program through disciplinary action shall lose any accumulated promotional point and shall not be allowed to use it in any part for testing purposes. Staff members who are involuntarily transferred from an assignment and are no longer an FTO or who resign in good standing may use the accrued promotional ½ or whole point for a one time only addition to his/her overall score in an approved promotional process. The point or ½ point must be used in the next available test time after severance from the FTO program. Corrections Field Training Officer points must have been earned prior to the first day of the month in which the written examination is administered.

- N. In the event of a tie on the final raw score, longevity (hire date) will be used as the - preliminary tie breaker with the written test score as the next resort if necessary.

- O. Placement on the eligibility list will be determined by the total number of points accumulated from the written test, the oral review board, longevity credit, college/TCLEOSE credits, and FTO points, were applicable. Minimum score for placement on the eligibility list must be 50% of the aggregate total possible score.
 - P. Candidates may also receive additional consideration for specialized skills or diversity. 3.08.005 THE ELIGIBILITY LISTS THUS ESTABLISHED FROM THE ABOVE PROCESS WILL BE IN EFFECT FOR ONE YEAR FOLLOWING THE DATE IT IS ESTABLISHED. SAID LIST WILL BE POSTED LISTING THOSE ELIGIBLE FOR PROMOTION RANKED IN NUMERICALLY SCORED ORDER.

3.08.006 When a promotional list is established, and a position is available or has been approved by the Commissioners Court, the Sheriff shall, within thirty (30) days, designate an employee from the eligibility list in accordance with Sections 3.08, to fill the available or approved position. Once designated, the employee shall be entitled to such position without regard to when such position is filled and without regard to the promotional list that is in effect at the time such position is ultimately filled.

CHAPTER 4 LAYOFFS AND DISMISSALS

4.00 -- REDUCTION IN FORCE (LAYOFFS)

A reduction in force is a decrease in the number of employees authorized, or decrease in the number of employees in a specific classification resulting from a discontinuance of service, organizational changes, functional reassignments of tasks or change in funds authorized; and, is not to be considered a disciplinary action.

Changes in position authorization required in a reduction in force will be determined by Commissioners Court and will be initiated by the ordered reduction of budgeted funds, or the reduction of authorized positions by the deletion of budgeted positions by position number in a specific bureau/division.

Whenever possible, employees occupying positions to be deleted due to a reduction in force in one County bureau/division or office shall be referred for reassignment to other position openings for which they are qualified in the same or other division/offices. This action will be coordinated through Travis County and the Travis County Sheriff's Office Personnel Section.

Length of service of an employee, for inclusion in layoff ratings, shall be based upon the number of calendar months of continuous Travis County Sheriff's Office service. Leave time taken for military, family or medical leave will not be included in the calculation of the length of service and will not be considered a break in the continuous service. Periods of absence on leave without pay for any other purpose shall be considered a break in the continuous service. Any employee laid off shall, after timely reinstatement, regain seniority possessed at the time of layoff.

4.01 -- ORDER OF LAYOFF OR REDUCTION

Employees in the classified service shall be laid off or reduced in rank on the basis of inverse order of seniority.

All promotional rank in the classified service, Lieutenant, Sergeant, Detective and Senior Officer, shall be reduced to the next lower rank until the shortage of positions is adjusted.

If seniority is the same, the person lowest on the original eligibility list is the first laid off.

4.02 -- REINSTATEMENT LISTS

The names of employees laid off or demoted in accordance with this rule shall be entered on a list in the inverse order of their laying off or reduction of rank.

A background investigation will not be conducted on a reinstated employee. As a matter of procedure, in-service training will be offered to the reinstated employee.

Any new certifications or promotions in the affected class will come from the appropriate reinstatement list, if any, without regard to the current eligibility list until the reinstatement list is depleted.

Any employee refusing reinstatement to the classified service or promotion to previous rank shall be dropped from the reinstatement list.

Any employee scoring "below standard" on his/her last two performance appraisals shall not be eligible to be placed on a reinstatement list.

Any employee refusing to accept reduction in rank during layoff and terminating his/her employment shall not be eligible for placement upon a reinstatement list.

4.03 -- RESIGNATIONS

An employee, who desires to resign in good standing with the Sheriff's Office, shall submit his/her written resignation to his/her supervisor and the Sheriff's Personnel Section and, except for good cause shown, give at least two (2) weeks notice of his/her intention to leave the organization.

4.04 -- DISMISSAL

An employee may be dismissed from the Sheriff's Office for just cause as identified in Chapter 5 of these rules.

CHAPTER 5 DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

5.00 -- DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AND CORRECTIVE/DEVELOPMENTAL MEASURES

The administration desires to encourage progress toward the accomplishment of Office goals, and policy purposes, and to encourage compliance with Office rules. Disciplinary actions are sometimes necessary to correct actions or omissions which are inconsistent with the goals, policies, and rules. Hereafter such actions or omissions are referred to as violations.

The procedures related to this policy are provided to guide supervisors in their determination of violations, and in their selection of disciplinary actions or recommended actions which are necessary to deter repeated incidents by the violator or other employees or which is necessary to maintain the integrity and community respect for the Office.

5.01 -- DETERMINATION OF VIOLATIONS

Violations include any action or inaction which unnecessarily inhibits the accomplishment of (or progress toward) the accomplishment of an Office goal, or policy purpose, or which violates a rule. The determination of a violation is usually made by an employee's immediate supervisor. Prior to making such determination, the supervisor shall be careful to consider all reasonably attainable information and avoid letting his/her personal feelings (positive or negative) about the subordinate interfere with his/her judgment.

5.02 -- SUSPECTED CRIMINAL ACTS

An employee who is arrested or involved in a situation requiring inquiry from law enforcement authorities for alleged criminal activity shall notify his/her immediate supervisor within 24 hours of the incident and provide the facts related to the incident.

Once notified, the supervisor shall immediately notify the Sheriff or his/her designated substitute, and is governed by his/her instructions. Prior to the Sheriff's or his/her designee's presence, the legal rights of such suspected employee should be ensured as any other criminal suspect.

5.03 -- ALTERNATIVE DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AND CORRECTIVE/DEVELOPMENTAL MEASURES

Alternative actions include:

1. Counseling or training.
2. Oral reprimand.
3. Coaching report
4. Written reprimand.
5. Relief from duty (pending other recommendation).
6. Suspension without pay.
7. Additional probation of position for up to one year.
8. Demotion.
9. Dismissal.
10. Criminal charges.

Once a supervisor has determined that his/her subordinate is responsible for a violation, and recommends action other than counseling or training, oral reprimand or coaching report, he/she reports the violation and recommendation to the Sheriff or his/her designee orally or in writing.

5.04 -- REVIEW OF RECOMMENDED ACTION

The Sheriff or his/her designee reviews all recommendations, and decides what disciplinary action, if any, to take.

5.05 -- EMERGENCY ACTIONS

A supervisor may relieve a subordinate from duty when he/she believes that employee's continued presence is dangerous to himself/herself, or others, or that his/her presence constitutes interference with the effective operations of the Office; e.g. someone is intoxicated while on duty. Extreme care is exercised in making this decision, and the supervisor taking such action immediately notifies his/her supervisor.

5.06 -- CORRECTIVE/DEVELOPMENTAL MEASURES

Counseling or training (written or oral) is the most preferred means of correcting and developing behavior, and is used when a supervisor believes such action is adequate to fulfill the purposes expressed in 5.00.

Oral reprimands involve training but are more sternly administered to emphasize the seriousness of the violation and/or need for future avoidance of the violation.

Additional probation of position may be imposed by the Chief Deputy or Sheriff for up to one year when documented work performance is inadequate, apparently due to a lack of skill, ability or dedication to duty. Leave time taken for family or medical leave will not be included in the calculation of probationary time.

5.07 -- DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

Written reprimands are used when the lieutenant/supervisor believes a corrective measure will be inadequate to accomplish the purposes of 5.00. The recommendation of a written reprimand should include the proposed written reprimand, and is sent to the next higher organizational level for approval.

Recommendations for suspension without pay are made for one or more days based on what the recommending supervisor believes will accomplish the purpose of 5.00. The Chief Deputy reviews such recommendations, and decides to uphold, modify or deny them. If he/she agrees with the recommendation to suspend, he/she may modify it to include more or less days; he/she then sets the time when the suspension should occur in a manner which will best serve the Office, and informs all concerned personnel. If the Chief Deputy denies the recommendation, he/she notifies the supervisor and the employee that was to be disciplined.

Recommendations for demotion are made by a lieutenant/supervisor when he/she believes this action is necessary to accomplish the purpose expressed in 5.00. The Chief Deputy, if he/she concurs with the recommendation, sets an effective date for demotion and informs concerned parties. Persons demoted may be placed in the last rank held or any lessor included rank that was created after he/she promoted past it per Chapter 3 of this manual. Example: Person promotes from Deputy II to Detective to Sergeant. He is later reviewed for demotion and a rank of Deputy III was created while he was a Detective. He can be demoted to the rank of Deputy II, Deputy III, or Detective.

Recommendations for dismissal are made by a lieutenant/supervisor when he/she believes this action is necessary to accomplish the purpose expressed in 5.05. The Chief Deputy, if he/she concurs with the recommendation, sets an effective date for termination, and informs concerned parties.

Criminal charges are filed as directed by the Sheriff after reporting and handling in accordance with 5.02.

Supervisors, including the Sheriff, may intervene at any time on matters under disciplinary review within that supervisor's chain of command.

All disciplinary actions are forwarded to the Personnel Section to be included in the Personnel File. Only the Sheriff has the authority to remove documentation of disciplinary actions from the Personnel File.

5.08 -- APPEALS

Appeals procedures are addressed in Chapter 6 and its procedures.

CHAPTER 6 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

6.00e- GRIEVANCES

It is the policy of the Office that grievances are dealt with directly, quickly and fairly. It is recognized that occasions or events may occur when an employee believes, rightly or wrongly, that a condition of employment or decision affecting him/her is unjust or inequitable. It is important to employee morale and the maintenance of Office teamwork that these complaints be resolved.

6.01 -- SUPERVISORY RESOLUTION

Within ten (10) working days of the action or inaction giving rise to the grievance, the employee presents the grievance in writing to his/her supervisor, unless by written agreement of both parties waiving such deadlines or for good cause shown to the Commission. The supervisor responds to the problem as soon as practical, but in no case is that more than ten (10) working days. Failure of the supervisor to respond shall be deemed a denial of the grievance. In a circumstance where the supervisor is the subject of the grievance, the employee may choose to take his/her grievance to the next higher authority (6.02).

6.02 -- APPEAL BEYOND IMMEDIATE SUPERVISOR

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved under 6.01, or if the grievance involves the complaining party's supervisor, the employee presents the grievance in writing directly to the next higher authority within ten (10) working days of having received a response from the previous level of supervision. Supervisors receiving such grievances use all reasonably available information to evaluate the problem and inform the complaining party of their decision regarding resolution of the grievance within ten (10) working days.

Personnel who are not satisfied at this point, but who have not yet reached the Bureau Captain or Director, may continue carrying their grievance to the next higher level of supervision. In each case the appeal must be submitted in writing within ten (10) working days after the response of the previous level of supervision. Supervisors receiving such complaints use all reasonably available information to evaluate the problem and inform the complaining party of their decision regarding resolution of the grievance within ten (10) working days.

6.03 -- INTRA-OFFICE APPEAL

Grievances not resolved to the satisfaction of the complaining party at the Captain/Director level may be appealed to the Major of their Bureau. If not resolved, the complaining party may then appeal in writing, within ten (10) working days, to the Chief Deputy. If a grievance reaches the level of Chief Deputy, the Chief has 15 working days to answer the grievance in writing. Following that appeal, the aggrieved party may, within ten (10) working days, appeal in writing, to the Sheriff. The Sheriff will have 20 working days to respond to any grievances below that of a termination. In the case of a termination, the Sheriff will have 30 working days to provide a written answer to the employee. If a written response is not received within the allotted time then the decision is assumed to have been affirmed on the previous level. Except for matters under the jurisdiction of the Commission, decisions by the Sheriff are final.

6.04 -- APPEALS BEYOND THE SHERIFF

Only matters under the Civil Service Commission authority as indicated in Article 158.035 of the Local Government Code are appealable beyond the Sheriff.

An employee who, under the final decision of the Commission, is demoted, suspended, or removed from a position, may appeal the decision by filing a petition in a district court of the County, no later than the 30th day after the day the decision is issued. An appeal under this system is tried de novo.

6.05 -- APPEALS PURPOSE

The purpose of an appeal procedure to the Commission is to provide a further recourse to the Disciplinary Action or Grievance Policies contained in these rules. The Commission Chairperson or his/her designee will chair the appeals proceedings.

6.06e- APPEALS RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

An employee has the right to appeal the Sheriff's final decision relating to a disciplinary action or grievance to the extent provided in Article 158.035. A notice in writing stating the reason for the appeal must be received by the Commission within ten (10) working days after the employee receives written notice of the disciplinary decision or written notice of the Sheriff's decision on their grievance.

The grievance shall include the following information:

- Grievant's name, address and phone number
- Cause for grievance
- Desired relief requested
- Copies of any grievances and responses received from grievant's chain of command.

Upon receipt of the written notice by the Commission's designee, the Commission has ten (10) working days to conduct any further investigation or to determine if a hearing is warranted and to make such decision known, in writing, to the employee. If a hearing is warranted, the Commission will conduct a hearing within six months of receipt of the appeal unless waived for good cause as determined by the Commission. Further, upon Motion made by either party or the Commission, the Commission may order a special ruling that matters not involving specific evidence can be set and heard by the Commission prior to the hearing. The time limits about exchange of witnesses or documents do not apply to such hearings.

The employee or Sheriff may be represented by counsel or a person of their choice before the Commission.

During the hearing, the Sheriff presents his/her case first. The employee then presents his/her case. Then the Sheriff may present a rebuttal. The Commission may then question either side for further clarification. All testimony is sworn testimony.

All character witness testimony will be submitted in the form of letters with a four letter maximum per appellant.

At least ten (10) working days before the hearing, the employee and the Sheriff shall exchange lists of witnesses to be called and documents to be offered. Upon request by either party the Commission may shorten this time upon showing of good cause. No witness may be heard and no documents received into evidence unless they are on the exchanged lists. Upon showing of good cause for not timely listing the offered evidence, the Commission may decide to allow additional evidence.

All hearings are tape recorded or transcribed.

The Commission shall render a final decision in writing to the employee and the Sheriff within five (5) working days after the end of the hearing.

The Commission may uphold the disciplinary action of the Sheriff; modify disciplinary action as it may deem appropriate; or grant the relief requested by the appeal. In no case shall the Commission increase the severity of the disciplinary action.

If the demoted, suspended or removed employee is restored to his or her position by order of the Commission, he or she shall receive compensation of salary and benefits accumulated as the Commission deems appropriate.

6.07 -- USE OF SUBPOENAS

The Civil Service Commission has the authority to compel any witness to appear and give testimony at an appeals resolution hearing.

The employee and/or the Sheriff may request that subpoena be issued for any individual who has material facts or other relevant information which would have a bearing on the outcome of the grievance. The party requesting that subpoena issue shall be responsible for providing the name, current home or business address and telephone number(s) for each potential witness. Once issued, either party is entitled to rely on the subpoena to compel attendance of an individual listed thereon. Subpoenas will be issued in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and be obtained at the District Court level.

If a witness shall fail to appear, the Commission or either party may request attachment to issue against the non-compliant witness. The party requesting attachment shall be responsible for seeing to the procedural aspects of its issuance. An attachment shall be obtained at the District Court level and executed in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

If the party requesting the subpoena requires the presence of one or more witnesses who do not have relevant information about the occurrence that gave rise to the disciplinary action and grievance, the Civil Service Commission, on its own motion or a motion of the other party, may assess all costs of the subpoenas, including payroll costs, caused by requiring the presence of a witness who does not have information relevant to the occurrence against the party requesting the subpoena.

No costs may be assessed for any witness who, in the opinion of the Civil Service Commission, provides relevant information or who appears without a subpoena.

CHAPTER 7
OTHER MATTERS RELATING TO SELECTION OF EMPLOYEES AND THE PROCEDURAL AND SUBSTANTIVE RIGHTS, ADVANCEMENT,
BENEFITS AND WORKING CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYEES
7.00e- CONDUCTING INVESTIGATIONS OF CITIZEN COMPLAINTS

Following receipt of a citizen complaint not resolved at lower supervisory levels, the Chief Deputy, Sheriff or the Sheriff's designee pursues all reasonable investigative leads to determine the accuracy of the alleged occurrence. Once the Sheriff has decided to notify the accused employee, he/she is contacted, advised in writing and asked for his/her explanation or knowledge concerning the alleged occurrence. The Sheriff may ask that an employee take a polygraph to aid in the attempt to successfully resolve a complaint. If a criminal act or omission is alleged, the employee is first advised of his/her legal rights as any other criminal suspect would be advised and is permitted to obtain legal counsel prior to answering any questions if the Sheriff intends to file criminal charges.

7.01 -- INTRA-OFFICE INVESTIGATIONS

1. For the purposes of this rule:
 - a. "Complainant" means a person who reports to or who files a formal complaint of unprofessional conduct on the part of an employee of the Travis County Sheriff's Office. This does not include the Internal Affairs Investigator assigned to the case.
 - b. "Complaint" means any allegation, notification or other report which initiates an Internal Affairs investigation.
 - c. "Investigation" means an Internal Affairs investigation conducted by the Travis County Sheriff's Office of unprofessional conduct by a Sheriff's Office employee, which could result in the imposition of disciplinary action. As used herein, such meaning specifically excludes any investigation of criminal activity.
 - d. "Investigator" means an employee of the Travis County Sheriff's Office who is assigned to conduct an investigation.
 - e. "Unprofessional conduct" means any act or omission of an employee which violates a federal, state, county, or municipal statute, regulation or ordinance, or which violates a court order, or which violates any of the policies, procedures, or rules of the Travis County Sheriff's Office, including, but not limited to the Office General Manual, any bureau or Division Procedural Manual, and any applicable Office or Division memorandum.

2. An investigator may interview an employee who is the subject of an investigation only during the employee's assigned working hours unless the employee is compensated in accordance with the applicable County provision for overtime compensation. The Sheriff may not consider work missed by an employee during assigned working hours due to participation in an investigation in determining whether to impose a punitive action or determining the severity of a disciplinary action. If the employee requests off duty hours for interview, he/she will waive compensation in lieu of convenience.
3. An investigator may not interview an employee or conduct the investigation at the employee's home without the employee's permission.
4. Neither the complainant, nor a person who is personally involved in the incident under investigation may conduct the investigation. The employee under investigation may inquire and, upon doing so, be informed of the identity of each person present during an investigation related interview of the employee.
5. The investigator in charge shall furnish the employee under investigation with a written statement of the nature of the complaint or allegation prior to any interview of said employee for scheduled interview. Unless good cause is shown, such written statement shall be given to the employee at least 48 hours before the interview is conducted. For interviews that occur shortly after the time of the incident and at the scene of the incident, the investigator in charge shall furnish the employee an oral statement of the nature of the complaint or allegation prior to the interview. In these cases a written statement must be provided within three (3) working days after the interview.
6. The investigator will communicate the estimated length of time necessary to conduct the interview so the employee under investigation can make arrangements for availability. Investigators shall allow reasonable interruptions during an interview session to afford the employee under investigation an opportunity to attend to personal physical necessities.
7. During an interview, an investigator may not threaten an employee under investigation with punitive action. However, an investigator may inform the employee that his/her failure to truthfully answer questions directly related to the investigation or his/her failure to cooperate fully in the investigation may result in disciplinary action independent of any that may result from the incident under investigation.
8. With prior notice, either an investigator or the employee under investigation may record the employee's interview session. The parties are responsible for providing their own recording devices and media for recording.

7.02 -- INTRA-OFFICE TRANSFERS

It is the responsibility of the Sheriff and his or her designees to ensure the fulfillment of the Office's obligations to the public. This responsibility and the authority to schedule and assign personnel to fulfill that obligation shall not be abridged by this section. Transfer assignments shall be made on need, as well as considerations of diversity, liability, special skills and to promote harmony within the Office. However, employees feeling that they have been capriciously or maliciously reassigned may address their concerns through the grievance procedures set out in these rules (Chapter 6, Grievances).

Procedures for filling vacancies will be submitted by the Division Heads to the Sheriff for approval and will outline a clearly defined method. The procedure will be posted with the notice of vacancy.

7.03 --EMPLOYEES AFFECTED BY THE ADDITION OR REMOVAL OF AN ENTIRE ACTIVITY/FUNCTION

1. If an Activity/Function is removed from the administration of the Sheriff's Office and employees are transferred with it, those employees then are no longer under the jurisdiction of the Civil Service Commission and these Regulations. Except for situations covered by the Reduction-In-Force policies, any such transfer must be voluntary on the part of any classified employee. Notwithstanding this restriction, the Sheriff may "loan" classified employees on assignment to other departments or agencies to accomplish any lawful objective, including to the end that a given Activity/Function can be transitioned in an orderly and productive manner from the administration of the Sheriff's Office to another department or agency. Classified employees thus assigned remain under the command of the Sheriff for the duration of such assignment or until removed under any other applicable laws for other purposes or causes. They also remain under these Regulations or until removed under any other applicable part of these Regulations or other applicable laws for other purposes or causes.
2. If an existing Activity/Function, along with some or all of its existing employees, is added to the Sheriff's Office, the prospectively newly acquired employees may become classified, subject to the following:
 - a.] The proposed employee must meet all TCSO new-hire standards, including back-grounding, for the proposed job.
 - b.] A one year new-hire probationary period must be served.
 - c.] Time-in-grade credit for prior service outside or within TCSO must be determined for each prospective assigned employee. This will be accomplished by the Civil Service Commission in open hearing. The Commission will interpret and apply the provisions of any Inter-local Agreement or Commissioners Court formal action which may have been approved to effectuate or authorize the transfer of the Activity/Function.
