

PRESENTS A SPECIAL MOVIE SCREENING EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE MEMBERS OF PROJECT ENGAGE

Alamo Drafthouse founder and CEO, Tim League, has partnered with Travis County's Misdemeanor Youth Offender Court, PROJECT ENGAGE ...giving teenage defendants in our adult criminal justice system the opportunity to be the first audience in Austin to watch Monsters and Men, winner of the 2018 Sundance Film Festival Special jury award for outstanding first feature. It features a politically current drama from a teenager's perspective taking place in present-day Brooklyn, New York.

After the screening, Alamo Drafthouse will seek feedback from its teenage audience before its official release in October. All members of Project Engage will receive free admission, Alamo Drafthouse sandwiches and pizza. Seating is limited, but open to Travis County criminal justice participants.

Contact Judge Mueller's office to inquire at (512) 854-9677.

The Alamo Drafthouse @
1120 S. Lamar Blvd, Austin, TX 78704

Thurs., June 28th 1:00pm