

167th DISTRICT COURT:

Defendants are required to appear in Court with or without their attorney for Designation, Pretrial, Pretrial with Witness, Trial Before the Court with Witness, Jury settings, and/or other settings determined by the Court.

Unindicted status

If a case is unindicted and the defendant is represented by an attorney, the defendant does generally not have to appear. However, if the defendant is out of jail without an attorney, appearance for all settings is required.

Bond Forfeitures

Attorneys must approach the Court prior to approaching another judge to Re-instate the Bond.
