3. Plea Bargains: The prosecutor's punishment recommendation is not binding on the Court. If a plea bargain does exist, the Court will inform you in open court before making any finding on your plea whether it will follow the plea agreement. Should the Court reject the plea agreement, you will be permitted to withdraw your plea if you desire.

4. Unnegotiated Plea: If there is no plea bargain, then all non-jurisdictional defects are waived, and you have no right to appeal except for jurisdictional matters. If you are convicted in a non-negotiated plea you have the right to appeal jurisdictional matters to the appropriate Court of Appeals of Texas, and the right to be represented on appeal by an attorney of your choice, but if you are too poor to pay for such attorney or the record on appeal, the Court will, without expense to you, provide an attorney and a proper record for such an appeal.

If you are not a citizen of the United States of America, you do understand that a plea of guilty or nolo contendere in this instance might result in your deportation; exclusion from admission to this country; or, denial of naturalization under federal law. In addition, if you are not a citizen of the United States of America, you acknowledge that you have discussed these potential immigration consequences with your attorney and that all inquiries have been answered to your satisfaction. In addition, you acknowledge that no promises have been made to you by your defense attorney, the prosecutor, or the Court concerning your right to remain in the United States after the entry of this plea.

7. Deferred Adjudication: If the Court grants you deferred adjudication community supervision, you may be arrested and detained if you violate any condition imposed on you. You will then be entitled to a hearing without a jury limited to the determination by the Court of whether to proceed with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. After adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of community supervision and your right to appeal continue as if adjudication of guilt had not been deferred. Upon adjudication of your guilt, the Court may assess your punishment at any length of time and any fine within the range of punishment.

If you are placed on deferred adjudication community supervision you may have the right to petition the court for an order of nondisclosure under Section 411.081 Government Code. You are not entitled to so petition the court if you were placed on the deferred adjudication community supervision for or have been previously convicted or placed on any other deferred adjudication for:

- (1) an offense requiring registration as a sex offender under Chapter 62, Code of Criminal Procedure;
- (2) an offense under Section 20.04, Penal Code, regardless of whether the offense is a reportable conviction or adjudication for purposes of Chapter 62, Code of Criminal Procedure;

8. Sexual Offender Registration Requirements: If you receive community supervision, a prison or jail term, or deferred adjudication for an offense described in Chapter 62 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure (sex-related offenses), you must meet all the registration requirements set out in that chapter. Failure to properly register is a separate criminal offense. By affixing your signatures to this document, you and your attorney are acknowledging that your attorney has advised you about and you are aware of any applicable registration requirements under Chapter 62.

_____ 9. Unlawful to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition:

If you are convicted of a felony, on this case, or on a previous case, or of a misdemeanor offense involving violence where you are or were a spouse, intimate partner, parent, or guardian of the victim or are or were involved in another, similar relationship with the victim, you are not eligible, and it is unlawful, for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a handgun or long gun, or ammunition, pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. section 922(g)(9) or Section 46.04, Texas Penal Code, and possession of a firearm or ammunition could subject you to additional criminal charges. If you have any questions whether these laws make it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm, you should consult an attorney.
