LETTER DECLINING PROSECUTION AFTER INVESTIGATION

RE: Officer-Involved Shooting on February 6, 2017, by Austin Police Department Officer Samuel Travis involving Javier Tinoco

Dear Chief Manley:

The Office of the Travis County District Attorney (“District Attorney”) has reviewed the Austin Police Department Special Investigation Unit (APD SIU) investigation of the above-referenced matter and concluded our independent review of the officer-involved shooting in which Austin Police Department Officer Samuel Travis fired his 9MM pistol at Javier Tinoco during a traffic stop to prevent Tinoco from seriously or fatally injuring Corporal Jeffrey Barrick with his vehicle. The shooting did not result in injury. This letter is to inform you that the District Attorney declines to prosecute Officer Travis for his actions during this incident.

The District Attorney monitored and reviewed the investigation of the Austin Police Department into this incident pursuant to the officer-involved shooting protocol that is attached/posted on its official website. A copy of this letter will also be posted on the District Attorney official website.¹

Tinoco was charged with Driving While Intoxicated-Felony, Aggravated Assault of a Peace Officer, and Evading Arrest with a Motor Vehicle arising out of this incident, and his cases are pending.

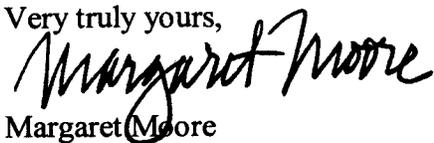

The Civil Rights Division of this office has a policy of issuing declination letters setting out a thorough factual and legal analysis of the officer-involved shooting where the elected District Attorney has determined a grand jury review of the officer’s use of force is not necessary. However, when there are pending criminal cases arising out of these incidents, the accused’s right to a fair trial and prosecutorial ethical rules prohibit the release of information.² Therefore, our analysis will be published after the criminal matters against Mr. Tinoco are resolved.

Very truly yours,
