After 20 years of claiming that she accidentally killed three month old Brandon Baugh, Cathy Lynn Henderson today pleaded guilty to intentionally killing the infant in 1994.

Ms. Henderson was sentenced to 25 years in prison for the murder and waived her right to appeal the conviction.

“Because of the change in testimony by former Chief Medical Examiner Roberto Bayardo regarding how the child may have sustained the injuries and the deaths of several key witnesses, we felt the 25 year sentence on a plea to intentional murder was a just result, and spared the victim’s family the anguish of another trial,” said Beverly Matthews, lead prosecutor in the case.
