A Travis County Grand Jury today concluded that Austin Police Department Officer Matthew Michaelson will not face charges related to the March 20th, 2016 shooting of William Mann at 9504 North IH 35. Mann was transported to a hospital and recovered from his injuries. He was subsequently charged with two felony cases arising out of the incident. Mann's cases remain pending.

The Grand Jury spent over six hours reviewing evidence and heard testimony from five witnesses.

Because the criminal cases against Mann remain pending, no press packet will be issued.
