A Travis County Grand Jury has concluded its investigation into the arrest of Breaion King by Austin Police Department (APD) Officer Bryan Richter and has decided not to issue an indictment for the officer's use of force during the arrest.

Officer Richter was working a traffic initiative on June 15th, 2015 when he spotted a car going above the speed limit in the 1900 block of East Riverside Drive. He turned on his patrol car's overhead lights and began pursuing the car which was being driven by Ms. King. Officer Richter caught up with the car as it was turning left into a parking lot. Ms. King got out of her car and was walking toward a fast food restaurant when Officer Richter ordered her to get back into her vehicle.

Ms. King went back and sat in her car and gave her driver's license to the officer when he requested it. Officer Richter then twice asked King to put her feet in the car and close the door. When she did not comply with Richter's request, he told her to stand up and reached into the car for her.

A struggle began in which Officer Richter forcibly removed Ms. King from her vehicle and took her to the ground where he put her in handcuffs. The incident was captured on video from the officer's car.

The Grand Jury heard approximately 13 hours of testimony from eight witnesses.

Press packets containing documents, audio and video related to the incident are available on the 1st floor of the District Attorney's Office, located at the Criminal Justice Center, 509 West 11th Street.
