Travis County District Attorney Margaret Moore released the following statement today:

On Friday, December 29th, the Travis County Grand Jury for the 450th District Court returned four indictments charging former Austin Fire Department Arson Investigator Marcus Reed with the felony offenses of sexual assault and misuse of official information, and the misdemeanor offenses of official oppression and abuse of official capacity.

The indictments allege that Reed unlawfully used his official status with AFD to sexually assault a woman that he came in contact with while he was on duty.

The 450th District Court set bonds for each indictment and Mr. Reed turned himself in to the Travis County Sheriff's Office on January 3, 2018.

The District Attorney's Office has no further comment.
