Today a Travis County Jury found Byron Montiel Flores guilty of Sexual Assault, a second degree felony. The Jury heard from the victim that she was taking odd jobs because she needed money to buy school supplies for her children. On August 18, 2017, Montiel Flores hired her to come clean his home, and while she was cleaning he sexually assaulted her. The Victim immediately ran from his apartment and called 911 and reported the sexual assault. APD investigated the case and brought charges against Montiel Flores. Assistant District Attorneys Abbey Fowler and James Booher prosecuted the case over the course of this week. The testimony of the Victim and the investigating officers along with DNA and cell phone evidence helped secure the verdict. ADA Fowler says, "We would like to thank the Victim for bravely coming forward and testifying against her assailant, and the Jury for their careful consideration of all of the evidence before coming to a just verdict."
