Jacob Dale Davidson Found Guilty of Burglary of a Building at St. Edward's University

(Austin, TX) On February 19, 2020, a judge found 27-year-old Jacob Dale Davidson guilty on charges of Burglary of a Building at St. Edward's University. He was sentenced to 18 months in State Jail by Judge David Wahlberg in 167th District Court.

From October 1-14, 2019, Davidson was accused of breaking into the laundry room of a Community Building at St. Edward's University and stealing underwear from female student athletes. Witnesses spotted Davidson several times in and around the laundry room. A student caught Davidson climbing through the window of the laundry room and took pictures of him. She turned over the photos to the St. Edward's University Police Department.

Another student saw Davidson in his car and provided the license plate to campus police. They apprehended the defendant with piles of underwear in his vehicle.

Representing the State in this case were Travis County Assistant District Attorneys Ciara Parks and Laurie Drymalla.
