Corey Davis-Grant Found Guilty of Aggravated Robbery
Sentenced to 25 Years in Prison for Attacking Young Woman

(Austin, TX) A jury in Travis County this week found 29-year-old Corey Davis-Grant guilty of attacking an 18-year-old woman and stealing her wallet.

The State put on evidence of the defendant's prior robberies and on Friday, February 28, Judge Karen Sage sentenced Davis-Grant to 25 years in prison. The trial was heard in the 299th District Court.

On the afternoon of August 8, 2019, the victim says she was walking at 905 Nueces near the Travis County Courthouse when she was attacked from behind. She says a man hit her and then choked her. He took her wallet and fled in his car. The victim was able to get the car's license plate. She gave the information to Austin Police who tracked the car.

Davis-Grant admitted to driving the vehicle in downtown Austin that afternoon. GPS data confirmed he was at the crime scene. DNA found on the victim's neck also helped corroborate that he was the person who had attacked her. Davis-Grant was arrested by Austin Police on August 9, the day after the attack.

Prosecuting for the State were Travis County Assistant District Attorneys Victoria Winkeler and Lucio Del Toro.
