Travis County District Attorney Rosemary Lehmborg today announced that Mark Norwood has been indicted by a Travis County Grand Jury for the January 1988 capital murder of Debra Baker.

The indictment came after a coordinated investigation between the Austin Police Department and the Travis County District Attorney's Office. Mark Norwood is currently awaiting trial in Williamson County for the 1986 murder of Christine Morton.

The District Attorney's Office will have no further comment on this case while the charge is pending.
