For Immediate Release

December 11, 2013

Travis County District Attorney Rosemary Lehmborg today issued the following statement:

I appreciate the thoughtful attention Judge Peeples gave my case. I am relieved and thankful that the process is over.

I was fortunate to have the highly professional assistance of Dan and Clark Richards, Karina Esparza, Catherine Mauzy and Chuck Herring. I will be forever grateful to them.

I appreciate the many supporters, particularly within my office, who encouraged me along the way.

I deeply regret my actions on April 12th and have taken full responsibility. I am committed to carrying out my responsibilities as District Attorney and to continue serving the voters of Travis County.
