

Our Services

- Interpreting
- Case management
- Crisis intervention
- Assistance with the legal system
- Information and referral
- Notary services
- Outreach and education to Travis County and City of Austin departments
- Adaptive equipment for low-income deaf persons

Location

2201 Post Road #134
Austin, TX 78704

Contact Info

Phone

(512) 410-1598

Website

www.traviscountytexas.gov/health-human-services/deaf-services

Travis County Services for the Deaf & Hard of Hearing

Our mission is to bridge gaps between deaf, hard of hearing, and hearing citizens in Travis County by improving communication options, promoting self-sufficiency, and providing resources.

Who We Are

Travis County Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing is an agency that provides social services and communication-related services.

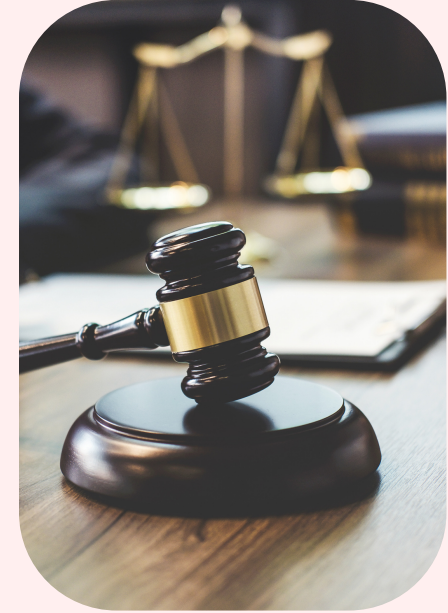

We can also advocate for legal rights, ADA access, and communication access.

Any person or Travis County agency may request our services or contact us for referrals.

We support people of all ages, including older adults and hearing parents with deaf infants.

Our Interpreters are Available for:

- Travis County Courts & Jail
- Travis County Commissioners Court
- Various Travis County Departments, including Family Support Services (emergency assistance)
- Travis County Counseling Programs
- City of Austin Municipal Court
- Austin Public Health
- CommUnity Care Clinics
- And more

Legal Services

- Educating deaf people about the legal system
- Providing case management for deaf persons in jail
- Educating the legal system about the needs of deaf people
- Advocating for equal access to jail, court, and legal services
- Providing information and referral to legal agencies