

Historic African-American Rural Schools in Travis County

Summary:
 This map shows the approximate locations of African-American attended rural schools in operation beginning in 1905. Some of these schools were added in the 1920's. By the 1940's most of these schools were closed.

Data Source(s): School locations compiled by Margerine E. Beaman of the Travis County Historical Commission, 2003. This map is a work in progress and may be updated as further research reveals additional school locations.

Map Disclaimer: This map is for general reference purposes only. The data is provided "as is" with no warranties of any kind.