The County's ad valorem debt service tax rate for the current fiscal year is $0.0616 per $100 of assessed valuation of taxable property in the County.

The County intends to issue the bonds authorized by the Proposition over a period of years in a manner and in accordance with a schedule to be determined by the Commissioners Court based upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the then current needs of the County, demographic changes, prevailing market conditions, assessed valuations in the County and management of the County's short-term and long-term interest rate exposure. Market conditions, demographics and assessed valuations vary based upon a number of factors beyond the County's control, and therefore, the County cannot and does not guarantee a particular interest rate or tax rate associated with the bonds authorized by the Proposition. As such, the information contained in this paragraph is provided solely for illustrative purposes and does not establish any limitations or restrictions or create a contract with the voters. The County currently estimates that, if the Propositions are approved and the bonds proposed herein are authorized and issued in accordance with the County's currently projected plan of finance, the maximum interest rate of the bonds is not expected to exceed 5.00%.

(b) Any additional information required by Section 3.009 of the Code is contained in Sections 2 and 3 of this Order.

Section 10. Necessary Actions. The County Judge and the County Clerk, in consultation with the County Attorney and bond counsel, are hereby authorized and directed to take any and all actions necessary to comply with the provisions of the Code, including particularly, Chapter 272 of the Code pertaining to bilingual requirements, and, to the extent applicable, the Federal Voting Rights Act, in carrying out and conducting the Election, whether or not expressly authorized herein, including making changes or additions to polling places or procedures to the extent required or desirable or as may become necessary due to circumstances arising after the date of this Order.

If any provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Order, or the application of same to any person or set of circumstances is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, void, invalid, or unenforceable, neither the remaining portions of this Order nor their application to other persons or sets of circumstances shall be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Commissioners Court in adopting this Order that no portion hereof or provision or regulation contained herein shall become inoperative or fail by reason of any unconstitutionality, voidness, invalidity or unenforceability of any other portion hereof, and all provisions of this Order are declared to be severable for that purpose.

Section 12. Effective Date. This Order shall take effect immediately upon adoption.

Section 13. Open Meeting. It is hereby officially found and determined that notice of the meeting at which this Order is adopted was given as required by the Texas Open Meetings Act, Chapter 551, Texas Government Code, and that such meeting has been open to the public at all times when this Order was discussed and acted on.
